FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DELAWARE ART MUSEUM ANNOUNCES CALL FOR ENTRIES FOR 2008 MINIATURES EXHIBITION

Wilmington, DE (April 14, 2008)—The Delaware Art Museum invites entries to our 2008 Miniatures exhibition, Masterpieces in Miniature. This exhibition is the Museum’s signature holiday display.

Each of the 10 installations will be inspired by a masterpiece of art, according to the entrant’s own definition of “masterpiece.” Entrants are encouraged, though not required, to select a work from the Museum’s own collections. Rather than exact three-dimensional reproductions, the miniatures may be creative interpretations of the original.

Entrants must complete and return an Entry Form to the Delaware Art Museum no later than May 15, 2008. The form, along with specific rules, can be found on the Museum’s website at http://www.delart.org/view/exhibitions/miniatures/call_for_entries.html. To avoid duplicates, entrants must indicate their choice of Artist and Work of Art at this time. Exhibition space is also limited. Entries will be considered in the order they are received.

Unless they submitted entries in 2007, entrants must also submit sample photographs of their previous miniature work to be reviewed by the Exhibition Committee. The Committee will contact applicants with their acceptance status no later than June 1, 2008.

About the Museum

Founded in 1912, the Delaware Art Museum holds a world-renowned collection that focuses on American art and illustration from the 19th century to the present as well as the British Pre-Raphaelite movement.
