

Your health and safety are our top priorities. The Delaware Art Museum is following safety guidelines issued by the Centers for Disease Control (CDC) and the State of Delaware for increased health and safety procedures.

Visitor guidelines below will help orient you before you arrive and ensure your safety during your visit. By visiting the Museum, you agree to abide by these policies. Please make sure to plan ahead for your visit.

To ensure that we are providing a safe environment for all, the Museum has the following protocols in place:

Guests, volunteers, and staff must wear cloth face coverings at all times inside the Museum and outside during events. On the terrace, masks are required unless seated.

Upgraded cleaning practices

Guests should practice safe social distancing and maintain a 6 foot radius between parties

Guests will be guided to electronic information and maps instead of paper

Cash transactions, large bags and coats are not permitted

Galleries, restrooms, and gathering spaces will have limited capacity

Guests not feeling well or that have come in contact with someone testing positive for Covid-19 in the last 14 days, are asked to refrain from entering
