

2024 Board Slate

Jennifer Fulton West Chester, PA

Dr. Jennifer Aiken Fulton is a talk therapist specializing in work with children, teens, parents, and families. She believes that art needs to be accessible to all and that exposing young children to art benefits the children as well as the future of art preservation. Jennifer lives in West Chester, PA with her husband and pets, including two Shetland sheep named after Pre-Raphaelite artists.

Lindsey DiSabatino Highlands Neighbor

Lindsey is an executive at Accenture with nearly two decades of experience in talent strategy, transformational program delivery, and the establishment of globally managed services. She specializes in delivery excellence in rapid and complex environments using strong organization, data-driven analytics, and people management skills. She has built managed services for global teams of over 300 people from the ground up. Lindsey has also designed and implemented a patented artificial intelligence solution to calculate the skills of Accenture's 700,000 people. Lindsey and her family live next door to the Museum.

Otis M. Robertson

Baltimore, MD

Otis spent 25 years in the corporate sector, including Polaroid, Digital Equipment Management, and Waddell & Reed. He has a notable African American art collection and serves on the BMA, DelArt, and Brandywine Workshop collections committees. He is a board member and past board chair of the James E. Lewis Museum of Art Foundation. Otis has a BA in philosophy from Morgan State University.

Barbara Goetz Lewes, DE

Barbara served as a Delaware Art Museum volunteer for more than 25 years. She is a past President of the Museum Council and played a leadership role in popular fundraising events such as Art in Bloom, the Holiday House Tour, and Art at Play, which collectively helped raise hundreds of thousands of dollars for the Museum. Barbara also designed and created the Museum's beloved white Tyvek holiday trees, supported a STEAM education program, and started DelArt's Winter Artisan Festival. Barbara is a floral designer and retired teacher with a Masters in Education from Temple University. She lives in Lewes, Delaware.

Dave Allman

Annapolis, MD

Dave is an entrepreneurial executive with a 30+ year track record of empowering some of the most innovative minds in business. His education includes an EMBA from Emory University in 1990 with a thesis focused on systems dynamics, organizational behavior, and change management. Dave and his wife Lisa share time between Colorado and Maryland. He enjoys his free time learning, being outdoors, traveling, the arts, and spending time with family.